YOUNG GIRL ATTACKED

Miss Cora L. Hoblitzell Dead-Funeral Services for James E. Legg Held.

Alexandria, Va., July 20.-Belated reports of the damage done by the storm yesterday afternoon in the outlying counties began to arrive in Alexandria today, and indicate considerable damage was done. Lightning struck a small barn beonging to C. G. Garber, Hayfield

Farm, Fairfax County, nine miles southwest of Alexandria, destroying the barn and its contents, including a large quantity of machinery. The lightning also struck a stallion owned by Mr. Garber, valued at $1,000, kill-ing it instantly. Mr. Garber stated today that his loss will be about $1,000 with only $650 fire insurance. Lightning raxed a number of fine shade trees on the place of Everett Triplett. Françonia Paries County Triplett, Franconia, Fairfax County. One of the big trees crashed through the side of the house and demolished a chimney. The tree which crashed through the side of the house considerably damaged furniture.

Large forces of workmen today were engaged in repairing the roads damaged by the storm. Telephone inemen also were kept busy repairing phones put out of commission by the storm.

AVENGING OF BELGIUM

Shibley States Military Spirit of Prussia Must Be Crushed Ere It Is Attained.

"Peace will not come in Europe until the allies have avenged Belgium, until the smaller nations have been guaranteed the same rights as their more powerful neighbors and until the military spirit of Prussia has been destroyed." George H. Shibley made this statement in addressing a meeting of the Peace League of the World at the Public Library last night. "When the time comes to make terms of peace in Europe, the Kaiser and Emperor Franz-Joseph will most likely object to any proposition for disarmament," said Mr. Shibley. "But the only thing the proponents of disarmament will have to do will be to fly over the trenches and drop hand bills down to the men. saying.
